Lincolnvew High School Class of 2011

Lincolnvew High School held its 51st annual Baccalaureate and Commencement Program in the high school gymnasium for the Class of 2011.

A total of 51 seniors graduated during ceremonies held this past Sunday afternoon, but it was a classmate who didn't get the opportunity to get his diploma who was remembered most.

Michael Young, who died tragically in an accident, was remembered by his mother and class speakers, while a chair decorated with his memorabilia was placed with the class in the high school gym.

Speakers for the evening included class Valedictorian Merissa Jones and Salutatorian Audrey Bown, along with Class President Emily Osting.

Opening remarks were made by Bryan Vercler, youth pastor at First Baptist Church.

The choir, under the direction of Stacie Korte, sang "Maybe We'll Meet Again," while the band, under the direction of Anna Battle, played "Follow the River."

Various senior awards were also handed out during the graduation ceremonies. Awards include the following:

Middle Point Lions -- Merissa Jones and Emily Osting

Venedocia Lions -- Shane Williams, Samantha Jones and Paige McClure. Williams also was awarded the Roger Jones Memorial Scholarship by the Venedocia Lions

Lincolnvew Young Farmers -- Tyler Wollenhaupt, Casey Patterson, Matt Allmandinger and Shane Williams

Lincolnvew Local Education Association -- Merissa Jones, Kayla Lehman and Emily Osting

Susie Dickman Memorial Scholarship -- Calista Dowdy.

Athletic Awards -- Taylor Hoehn and Audrey Bowen.

Superintendent Doug Fries presented the class and Board of Education members Eric Germann, Alan Morris, Ron Davis (president), Sally Snyder and Cindy Miller handed out diplomas.
