Crestview High School Class of 2012

Crestview High School held its 52nd annual Baccalaureate and Commencement Program in the high school gymnasium for the Class of 2012.

A total of 70 seniors graduated during ceremonies held Saturday evening in the high school gymnasium. The Rev. David Ray, pastor of Jennings Road Church of Christ in Van Wert and the father of graduating senior Josh Ray, spoke to the class.

Other speakers included honor students Matt Holden, Layne Callow and Shelby Minnich.

The choir sang "For Good" with Danille Hancock directing.

Crestview Middle School Principal Dave Bowen also provided remarks to the class, in the absence of High School Principal Mike Biro.

Outstanding Senior Awards were presented by Bowen and guidance counselor Kris Kill. Winners this year were Holden and Shelby Minnich.

Board members Pam Motycka (president), John Auld (vice president), Lonnie Nedderman, Lori Bittner and Mike Schlagbaum presented diplomas to this year's graduating class, while Motycka also had congratulatory remarks for the seniors.

Treasurer Lori Metzger also handed out several diplomas to the children of friends and relatives.

Those present also sang the school alma mater and Student Council President Frey gave closing remarks before the graduates tossed their mortarboards and recessed from the gymnasium.
